WHY TITLE A DOG?

Not just a brag, not just a stepping stone to a higher title, not just an adjunct to competitive scores, a title is a tribute to the dog that bears it, a way to honor the dog, an ultimate memorial. It will remain in record and in memory for as long as anything in this world can remain. Few humans will do as well or better in that regard.

And though the dog itself doesn't know or care that its achievements have been noted, a title says many things in the world of humans, where such things count.

A title says your dog was intelligent and adaptable, and good-natured. It says that your dog loved you enough to do the things that please you, however crazy they may have sometimes seemed.

And a title says that you loved your dog, that you loved to spend time with it because it was a good dog, that you believed in it enough to give it yet another chance when it failed, and that, in the end, your faith was justified.

A title proves that your dog inspired you to that special relationship enjoyed by so few; that in a world of disposable creatures, this dog with a title was greatly loved, and loved greatly in return.

And when that dear short life is over, the title remains as a memorial of the finest kind, the best you can give to a deserving friend, volumes of pride in one small set of initials after the name.

A title earned is nothing less than love and respect, given and received, and permanently recorded.

Caroline Rice - American Eskimo "Max"
Max BN CGC

When you rescue a dog, you never get to know when they were born. We picked up Max in Wichita on July 28, 2009. He had been with the "rescue lady" for a year, and our vet judged him to be about 2 years old. He made Canine Good Citizen and Beginners Novice, and that's all, but he was so faithful to me. He tried to keep up because he wanted to please me with all of his heart, right up to the end. He died peacefully in my lap.

Marv and I were so sad to lose our little Saylor. She was so pretty, sweet, agreeable, and happy-go-lucky. Saylor earned her way to the Classic in Orlando twice, where she was the High Scoring Westie. She also qualified for the Rally Nationals in Wilmington, Ohio, where she did very well. We will never forget her!

Three years ago I was lucky enough to get to babysit Roc for a while. Fortunately for me, conditions led to me getting to keep my buddy. While I did not see all the herding, obedience, agility, etc. performances, I did get to see just how good he was at them all. We didn't trial but got to herd periodically, and he taught me more about it than I picked up from watching others. He truly loved to herd, be it ducks or sheep, whether it needed done or was just to move 'em around for play time. He loved traveling and camping, and everywhere I took him people loved him. Fortunately, all was normal until a switch flipped. When it had to happen, Roc passed on my lap in a room full of tears.
