Tanq was such a gentle soul, and he loved everyone. We never thought we would get an obedience title on him and then he earned his CD in three straight trials, his CDX in three straight trials, and the first leg of his UD the first time I showed him! We even tried herding and got an HT. One of his great loves was jumping in to the pool, so we also did Dock Diving. Every night he would bring me an empty marrow bone requesting for it to be filled with a banana. I so wish he was sitting next to me right now, asking me to fill his bone.

From the time she was a puppy Chanel loved to stretch out in the sun on the ramp of my shed.

Chanel loved nosework! She was often shown to her numerous NW & SW titles by other people.

Chanel earned her championship in February of 2011. She fulfilled my lifelong dream of showing a dog to a championship!

In August of 2011 Chanel earned her AKC Grand Championship by beating six other champion bitches plus the class bitches. She was the first Grand Champion from her kennel.

Chanel enjoyed Rally. She and I were cruising along to her Rally Championship when she lost her hearing. We only needed 34 points to finish. At first I thought she was just tired of doing rally, but then discovered the hearing loss. I changed the way I gave her many of the signals, and on her 15th birthday she finally achieved her Rally Championship title. That was another first for her kennel.

Heart dogs. You know them when you have one. We can love many dogs in our lives, but some of them are just that little bit extra special. Brynley was my heart dog. I knew him in my mind years before he was born. I even told my family that I would have a blue sheltie boy, and his name would be Brynley. When he came home, I knew I was the luckiest person in the world. It was hard to believe I had the opportunity to have this beautiful puppy from the illustrious JUSDANDY Shelties. Brynley was a once-in-a-lifetime dog. Honestly, as an agility dog, he was too good for me. He was so fast! We eventually found our groove together in the sport of Nosework. He made it seem easy. Brynley taught me what partnership with an exceptional dog felt like. Competing with him pushed me to become a far better handler than I would have imagined. A dream that was started before he was even born was lived out in our journey together. The part that really matters in a dog's life with their person is all the little everyday moments. I can still feel the fur of his magnificent ruff as I buried my face for one of his excellent hugs. I still see Brynley grabbing at the carpet as he ran up the stairs. I remember him hogging the pillow above my head all night long. I feel him pull the leash as he dashed out from the start line to race to an odor source 40 feet away. He was my brilliant boy who searched in a blizzard and finished his Elite Nosework title searching vehicles on a frigid day in February. I am so lucky to have had this dog who lives on in my heart and memories.

How on earth can I convey the feelings I have about my Icy, my world, my treasure, my heart dog, my constant companion!? I couldn't have asked for a more perfect friend.

We were pals from eight weeks on. Icy was small but mighty all of her 16+ years, and she had plenty to say about life. She announced her presence whenever she walked into a room; she was such a character! She tolerated people, but not dogs, except for her friend Snowy who respected her. Poor Reign caught her wrath as he brushed past her, and the little toy poodle chased after the naughty border collie barking furiously. She caught his tail feathers, plucked some out, and strutted back with a smile, so proud of herself. Reign was wary of her the rest of her life!

Icy loved to work, and she earned titles in Conformation, Obedience, Rally, Agility, Tricks, Nosework, and Barn Hunt.

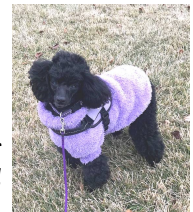

She was fun to watch, often putting her own twist on an exercise. Icy made me laugh! She would do anything for me, joyfully with a smile and twinkling eyes. I even had the privilege of showing her in the Parade of Champions at Poodle Nationals a month before she died. Most photos of her over the years showed her looking up at me. I often wondered how I deserved such adoration; but of course, it went both ways! Icy has left a huge hole in our hearts, but when I look back on life with her, I'm so very thankful to have been entrusted with that little tyke. I wouldn't want it any other way! Icy lived life under her own rules until the end, and she didn't let the vet tell us she was gone until she was ready, in my arms getting hugs and love. I understood when she told us she was ready to go. We miss her deeply, but we know that she's with family and friends at the bridge, and she has made the ShihTzu move over on Bert's lap for her love and treats. She was a dog in a million, and I was so honored to have called this little Ice Bug mine. "ICEeeeeee! Go get those squirrels and bunnies!"

I will see you again one day.

In Loving Memory

Alberta Gray "Bert"

4/28/46 - 5/14/23

Bert was a faithful BDOC member for over twenty years. She served many years as a board member along with also being our president for a number of years. She brought great new ideas to the club, including a Veterans Parade at our Agility Trials and later a Veterans Parade at our Obedience Trials. There wasn't a dry eye, including Bert's, as we watched each dog re-live their glory days! These Parades were a big hit at our events.

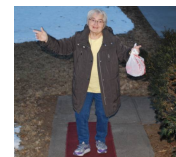

Bert fought the good fight for years against many health problems, including a kidney transplant, diabetes, and blood cancer. She never complained about her own health problems, but she was the best listener and a calming influence when faced with other people's problems. She was a true friend!

Bert's life revolved around her dogs. She lived to train, and she loved to show in many venues including Conformation, Obedience, Rally, Agility, Herding, Nosework, and Tracking. She often good-naturedly drove a few of us to out-of-town shows in her van loaded to the gills with six dogs, three people, and all of our "stuff"!

Bert adored her many Shih Tzu over the years. Later her Border Collie "heart dogs" Darby and Mia joined the "little people". We can only imagine the huge party at the Rainbow Bridge when Bert arrived!

Bert was the sweetest person in the world and a great friend. She always saw the best in everyone she met, and she is sorely missed by us all. We know she is smiling down on us with her Shih Tzu on her lap and Darby by her side. She is at peace knowing her surviving three dogs are in wonderful homes living full and happy lives. So long...until we meet again, dear friend!
